15. Multidisciplinary / interdisciplinary
The curriculum framework and the course structure have been designed in such a way that students apart from an honors subject, any student has to take two subsidiary subjects. This brings in the aspect of interdisciplinarity. In the current framework, Hindi and English languages are also included as compulsory subjects due to which students get familiarised with the literature in these languages and get additional exposure apart from their main subjects.
16. Academic bank of credits (ABC):
NA
17. Skill development:

For skill development among students college holds various programmes including lectures aiming to orient students towards the subject and workshops on skill-based activities.

18.Appropriate integration of Indian Knowledge system (teaching in Indian Language, culture, using online course)

Integration of Indian knowledge systems is done based on the curriculum framework in various departments. In each department wherever the context emerges the achievements of traditional Indian knowledge systems are emphasized. As our college is situated in a Hindi language belt area, the teaching has to be combined with Hindi language apart from the English language. Apart from the Hindi department, the college also has the departments of Sanskrit and Maithili. Maithili is the local language of the region which has achieved great literary achievements in the past since its inception. Therefore, teachers who belong to this region do communicate occasionally in Maithili with students.

19.Focus on Outcome based education (OBE):Focus on Outcome based education (OBE):

As the Outcome Based Education (OBE) is the need of the hour, the college has adopted a framework under which each department has redefined its curriculum and underlined the programme outcome and course outcome. These are available on the college website.

20.Distance education/online education:

In our college, sometimes examinations are conducted by the state Government or public service commission, matric and intermediate examinations during which the college becomes an examination centre, For such days, teachers in various departments make efforts to organize online lectures for their students.

CURRICULAR ASPECTS

1.1 - Curricular Planning and Implementation

1.1.1 - The Institution ensures effective curriculum delivery through a well planned and documented process

The College aims at providing quality education considering the needs of the students from less developed areas of Bihar. Teachers put efforts to make the implementation of the curriculum student-friendly considering the social and rural background of the students. A significant part of such efforts comprises encouraging students and keeping them motivated, delivering lectures to suit their needs, and providing learning materials to facilitate academic growth. The College believes in nurturing the talents of the students and motivating them for the best possible career paths. With this objective, teachers try to evaluate the performances of the students keeping in view their interest in learning and allround development. Lectures are designed to include problem solving and students are encouraged to participate in discussions.

In departments, teachers prepare lesson plans based on the curriculum adhering to the overall academic calendar.

4.4.2 - There are established systems and procedures for maintaining and utilizing physical, academic and support facilities - laboratory, library, sports complex, computers, classrooms etc.

The College has an established policy for maintaining and utilizing physical academic support facilities. As the availability of funds for such purposes is meager, requisite allocation is made from resources at the disposal of the College. The College tries to optimally utilize physical academic resources through planning in consultation with concerned departments. The maintenance of these facilities is followed on a case-by-case basis as and when needed with respect to the ability of the College to allocate funds from available resources. The College has dedicated a non-teaching staff to look after the library as the post of Assistant Librarian lies vacant. The dedicated staff spends much of his time at college in the library. The teachers and students can get books issued and may also enjoy the reading facility. The library is open for donations of books as has been made by retiring teachers and staff members. The laboratories are maintained by respective teachers with the help of the guest teachers. As the post for demonstrators has been abolished by authorities, the College depends on the teachers and volunteer services of the teachers to maintain laboratories that receive contingency and development grants from the university. Utilization of classrooms is governed by the Time-table Coordinators. Sports Complex is managed by the Sports-in-Charge. The utilisation of the conference rooms is coordinated by the NSS Officer. These functionaries of the teachers of different departments.

7.3 - Institutional Distinctiveness

7.3.1 - Portray the performance of the Institution in one area distinctive to its priority and thrust within 200 words

The College draws its distinctiveness from its location and the student community it serves. The location of the College makes it surrounded by rural areas of the district of Samastipur, home to the marginalized sections of society. Most of the students are first-generation learners. The College caters to the needs of such students with utmost dedication. Over the five decades of its existence, the College has evolved in identifying the needs of the clientele and serving to the best of their satisfaction and progress. One of the illustrations of such unique achievement has been that the College draws a considerable number of students from other districts as well. The College tries to focus on the local community in research and development activities. This can be gauged from the programmes of the NSS and research on local issues such as water quality and the development of villages in the recent past.

Part B

CURRICULAR ASPECTS

1.1 - Curricular Planning and Implementation

1.1.1 - The Institution ensures effective curriculum delivery through a well planned and documented process

The College aims at providing quality education considering the needs of the students from less developed areas of Bihar. Teachers put efforts to make the implementation of the curriculum student-friendly considering the social and rural background of the students. A significant part of such efforts comprises encouraging students and keeping them motivated, delivering lectures to suit their needs, and providing learning materials to facilitate academic growth. The College believes in nurturing the talents of the students and motivating them for the best possible career paths. With this objective, teachers try to evaluate the performances of the students keeping in view their interest in learning and allround development. Lectures are designed to include problem solving and students are encouraged to participate in discussions.

In departments, teachers prepare lesson plans based on the curriculum adhering to the overall academic calendar.

2.2 - Catering to Student Diversity

2.2.1 - The institution assesses the learning levels of the students and organizes special Programmes for advanced learners and slow learners

As most of the students are first-generation learners, the College takes care to cater to their learning needs. In addition to tutorials, teachers try to make themselves available for helping slow learners. The College caters to the needs of such students with utmost dedication. The College seeks to provide them with a learning environment conducive to their pursuit of higher education and experiences of development. Students are assessed on the basis of their participation in classroom discussions and marks obtained in their respective university examinations. Advanced learners are encouraged to follow advanced readings and participate in competitions at state and national levels.

4.1.2 - The Institution has adequate facilities for cultural activities, sports, games (indoor, outdoor), gymnasium, yoga centre etc.

The College has adequate facilities for cultural activities, sports, games, and yoga. For cultural activities, the seminar hall is used. In addition, the open stage and ground space may also be used for functions intended to cater to a large audience. There is a sports branch in the college which has a dedicated sports office and a repository that houses sports equipment. There is an expansive open sports ground measuring about 1.5 acres that adequately provides space for football, cricket, volleyball, badminton, and various athletics. It also has a running track for sprinting games. The college recently has constructed an indoor stadium within the premises that can be used for indoor sports like badminton, table tennis, and carrom, etc. For a large audience, it may also be used for yoga and meditation. The open gymnasium sanctioned in the college by the state government became functional last year. In addition to this, this year another open gymnasium has been established in the area of college ground and has become functional.

4.4.2 - There are established systems and procedures for maintaining and utilizing physical, academic and support facilities - laboratory, library, sports complex, computers, classrooms etc.

The College has an established policy for maintaining and utilizing physical academic support facilities. As the availability of funds for such purposes is meager, requisite allocation is made from resources at the disposal of the College. The College tries to optimally utilize physical academic resources through planning in consultation with concerned departments. The maintenance of these facilities is followed on a case-by-case basis as and when needed with respect to the ability of the College to allocate funds from available resources. The College has dedicated a non-teaching staff to look after the library as the post of Assistant Librarian lies vacant. The dedicated staff spends much of his time at college in the library. The teachers and students can get books issued and may also enjoy the reading facility. The library is open for donations of books as has been made by retiring teachers and staff members. The laboratories are maintained by respective teachers with the help of the guest teachers. As the post for demonstrators has been abolished by authorities, the College depends on the teachers and volunteer services of the teachers to maintain laboratories that receive contingency and development grants from the university. Utilization of classrooms is governed by the Time-table Coordinators. Sports Complex is managed by the Sports-in-Charge. The utilisation of the conference rooms is coordinated by the NSS Officer. These functionaries of the teachers of different departments.

GOVERNANCE, LEADERSHIP AND MANAGEMENT

6.1 - Institutional Vision and Leadership

6.1.1 - The governance of the institution is reflective of and in tune with the vision and mission of the institution

The college envisions contributing to the development of the locality and the state of Bihar. The college caters to students coming from less developed areas of the Samastipur district and adjoining areas. The institutional aim of catering to the young generation of the state and development needs is reflected in the governance of the college as public representatives and student representatives are included in the governance mechanism. The college also takes feedback from all stakeholders and attempts to incorporate them.

6.1.2 - The effective leadership is visible in various institutional practices such as decentralization and participative management.

The College follows formal and informal ways of decentralization and participative management. On the formal front, the College has committees such as the Development Committee, Purchase Committee, and Staff Council for specific and general decision-making. The teachers and staff of the College take active participation in these bodies and contribute to the management of the College. Apart from these formal bodies, teachers and staff interact frequently over issues of importance. Such interactions pave the way for the evolution of policies and plans of action through formal bodies. An atmosphere of consultation and participation prevails in the College aiding in creating a unique model of decentralization.

7.3 - Institutional Distinctiveness

7.3.1 - Portray the performance of the Institution in one area distinctive to its priority and thrust within 200 words

The College draws its distinctiveness from its location and the student community it serves. The location of the College makes it surrounded by rural areas of the district of Samastipur, home to the marginalized sections of society. Most of the students are first-generation learners. The College caters to the needs of such students with utmost dedication. Over the five decades of its existence, the College has evolved in identifying the needs of the clientele and serving to the best of their satisfaction and progress. One of the illustrations of such unique achievement has been that the College draws a considerable number of students from other districts as well. The College tries to focus on the local community in research and development activities. This can be gauged from the programmes of the NSS and research on local issues such as water quality and the development of villages in the recent past.
